THE MAN WHO MISREPRESENT THEM, Constituents.—The members of Congress who have stood out thus far against the election of a Speaker and the organization of the House, and who are responsible for the delay, consist of a little knot of a dozen impracticables, who were elected as Anti Nebraska men, and who still affect to denounce the iniquity of the Nebraska measure; but are nevertheless now willing to acquiesce in that villainy, by consenting to receive Kansas as a slave State, if, by any means, a slavery constitution is imposed upon the settlers They occupy very much the position upon the Nebraska question, which is now held by the Strict Whig organs, viz., a condemnation of the Compromise repeal, in words, but a refusal to interpose any actual barriers to the admission of slave States from that territory

These men in Congress, now persist in voting for Fuller of Pennsylvania, not yet withstanding to give up their full adhesion to the Nebraska policy, by voting for Richardson, but still persisting in their opposition to Banks who represents the practical and Nebraskaism, which their constituents voted for when they elected them to Congress!

If they do not succeed, however, in bringing over the administration members to vote for and elect their candidate, we shall feel small surprise to see them in the end voting straight out for Richardson,—especially if the plurality rule be adopted They are, as politicians, fast gravitating that way,—and, like their Whig colleagues in the Senate, will very likely soon be found in the democratic camp Their connection with the American order is all that now restrains them from an open adhesion to the Pierce, Douglas and Stringfellow party.

The N M Courier & Enquirer, in an article upon the Speakership, has the following remarks upon the course of these men:

Mr. Banks supporters are nearly if not as numerous as those of Mr Fuller, and yet the latter, if we are to judge by their conduct, are determined to force the former to abandon their ground and adopt Mr Fuller, or some other candidate occupying precisely the same position. This is on its face grossly unreasonable, and, in fact, is out of the question. The supporters of Mr Fuller, who number but a handful, cannot acquit themselves before the country for standing in the way of the organization of the House by exacting any such concession * * * *

But if the supporters of Mr Fuller have really become reconciled to the Nebraska Bill, let them go over to Mr Richardson, who is now the exponent, as he was once the champion, of the measure. This indeed may involve some what gross violation of the understanding on which they were sent to Washington by their constituents; but at least it will have the merit of preserving consistency between their conduct and their real sentiments * * * *

It behooves the fraudful of men who are keeping Congressional affairs at a dead lock, to consider well what they are doing The public eye is every day directed upon them more intently. They are making themselves marked men, and if they do not change will speedily hear tones of indignation that no public servants would willingly hear

THE SPEAKER HON THOMAS J D FULLER.—It is the subject of considerable inquiry at this time, why Mr. Milliken does not go forward and claim the seat in Congress so unworthily occupied by Mr Fuller of this State Mr F received the certificate in despite of gross illegalities in the plantation votes, and would be thrown out, if the illegal votes thus thrown for him were rejected Mr Milliken appeared in Augusta, when the votes were counted, with abundant proofs of his own right to the seat on the above ground; and it has always been understood that he would contest the seat at Washington All the lists of members which have been published in fact, put down Mr. Fuller's seat as a contested one, but still we hear of no movement from Mr Milliken. If Mr. Fuller can be ousted, it is due to the anti-Nebraska sentiment of the district (which he professed to agree with, but now outrages by voting for Richardson,) that the thing should be done

A larger number of dwelling houses has been erected in this city the last season, than on any previous year for some time. We learn that arrangements are being made for the erection of seven or eight fine houses, next season, in one location alone,—that beautiful section of the city between Madison street and the residence of Gen Nowell

A company of boys were skating upon Drummond's mill pond, a short time since, when one of them skated off the edge, and was immediately drawn by the current over the edge of the dam and down into the deep boiling foam of the fall. He succeeded in making his way out into the stream, and was rescued from his great peril.

The money market is pretty close here at the present time, partly on account of the closing up of the season—the preparation for the payment of January demands, and the want of sledding to give a stir to business The produce market continues to rule high, and farmers get a good price for all their surplus produce

Mr John H Webster, a Strait Whig correspondent of the Augusta Age, is laboring upon the question of the effect of the alterations in the Constitution, in order to make it appear that the Governor may still make appointments to the offices now provided to be filled by election.

There will be but little lumbering on the woods on the Penobscot waters, the present winter, compared with former years This will enable operators to clear up their surplus logs, and to operate with greater prudence in the future.

BAD INVESTMENTS. Nearly $160,000 of the stock of the Grocers' Bank, of Boston, is held by different Savings Banks in Massachusetts.

has been decided receptly in the Baltimore Superior Court, that when a broker negotiates paper without disclosing the name of his principal at the time of negotiation and the paper shall afterwards prove to be forged, he is liable to refund the money, though having received no interest in the transaction than the commission earned by the business. It thus appears to be the duty of a broker to know that the paper he passes to third parties are genuine signatures, and he is only exempted from its necessarily, by revealing the name of the parties to whom the paper belongs.

MILITARY. A new military Company has just been organized at Rockland, called the "Mechanics' Rifle Company" Edward C Spaulding, Captain, Samuel S. Erskine, 1st Lieut., Gilbert Berry, 2d Lieut.

We hear that a grand Military and Civic Ball is to come off at Bath, on New Year's Eve, and that the staff officers in this Division will probably attend.

It is not improbable that something of a similar character may come off in this city, on the next anniversary of Washington's Birthday.

HARBOR STEERS. We noticed yesterday some very elegant specimens of sleighs manufactured by Messrs. B. N. Toms & Co., at their establishment east end of Franklin Bridge They cannot be surpassed by any imported article, and must be eminently satisfactory to any gentleman who wants a handsome turn-out.

WOODWORTH'S YOUTH'S CABINET The first number of a new series of this excellent magazine for children is issued for January 1856.—It is published monthly at $1.00 per annum, by D. A. Woodworth, 118 Nassau St. New York.

THE MONTHLY LAW REPORTER for December, is received, and contains the usual amount of valuable legal information The report of the decision of the Supreme Court of Maine, in the case of Parsons vs Huff, recently published in our paper, is copied into the Reporter

CROSBY, NICHOLS & Co of Boston are the publishers.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT OF NEW ORLEANS has been farmed out for the sum of $100,000 per annum. All the work has been done for many years previous for less than half that sum The usual expenses of the volunteer corps, numbering 1800 men and over, were $42,000 a year, and never exceeded, it is said, $48 000

One or two of our citizens have adopted the plan of having a large air tight stove in their kitchens, in addition to the cook stove. By this arrangement, they keep a frost proof kitchen, without the expense of a furnace. They call it the poor man's furnace

The new hall in the south end of the Central Market House, on the same floor with the gallery of the large Norombega Hall, is now occupied by the New Jerusalem (Swedenborgian) Society, for public worship on the Sabbath.

WAR WITH CHINA.—The clipper ship Dreadnaught, Capt Samuels, from Liverpool, arrived on Tuesday, bring 1060 tons of dry goods, 700 tons of steel, tin plates, and cutlery, being the largest cargo of fine goods ever shipped to New York from Liverpool.

THE DWIGHT HOUSE. This new, elegant and capacious hotel is to be opened on the first of January, by S B Brown, Esq., who has for a long time administered the government of the Hancock House acceptably

AN EXCELLENT SIGN The Rockland Gazette says that the friends of the proposed new county will be pleased to learn that Smart of the Belfast Free Press is down on the project.

OBADIAH BROWN, Esq., has been appointed keeper of Negro Island Light in Camden, in place of E. M. Carleton, Esq., resigned

THE LIEUT GOVERNOR of New Brunswick has appointed a day of public Thanksgiving for that province.

It is not impossible that influences from an unexpected quarter will soon be brought to bear upon the members to make them more practicable on the subject of the Speakership. The Philadelphia Ledger says:

"The members of Congress are beginning to feel a kindred chill in their breeches pockets They can get no money till the organization is effected, and as many of them had no more spare cash than was necessary to carry them to Washington City, they have since been living on the Landladies and boarding house keepers are getting impatient for the first instalment of their board bills, but the members have nothing to give them, but promises to pay, till they receive their mileage This latter circumstance may probably bring the members to terms on the Speakership quicker than any conscientious scruples about wasting so much public time and money."

MORTAL AFFAIRS Notwithstanding the increase of $526,000 in the loans and discounts of the city banks last week, there is still an active demand for money outside, and first class paper is passing at 11 and 12 per cent. Second class and single names of good standing range from 13 to 15 per cent, besides a brokerage in some cases.

The stock market is dull and declining, except for some of the abundant securities The foreign trade is rather unfavorable as a whole, but not calculated in itself to produce much effect either way. The high prices of money in Europe will cause capital to turn in that direction, from nearly all sources of supply.—Boston Courier, 14th.

TIGER KILLED.—We are informed that Captain Somers, who resides some eight or ten miles from this city, on the opposite side of the river, killed one day last week near his place, a very large tiger measuring six feet and a half from his nose to the end of his tail, three feet high, and weighed between 300 and 400 lbs. This is the second one that has been killed in this county within the last fourteen or fifteen months.—Jacksonville (Fla) Republican.

EXPORTATION It is said that a majority of the members of the Missouri Legislature claim their per diem for the whole of the recesses which that body has taken, one extending from the 5th of March to the 3d of April, and the other from April 4th to Nov. 4th, making together nearly seven months. The State Auditor refuses to issue a warrant for the money, and cases have been agreed upon for the decision of the Supreme Court.

THE MURDER OF U.S. MARSHAL JONES.—The Pensacola Gazette gives the following particulars of the murder of Wm. H Rich ardson, the United States Marshal residing in that place, and which created a tremendous excitement:

One of the most cowardly and heartless acts of murder that we have ever been called upon to record, was committed on Saturday evening, Nov 7, and a public thoroughfare in one of the most frequented sections of the city The victim, William H Richardson, was a gentleman highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in this city, and occupied a high official position in this State From all the facts we are able to gather, it appears that Mr. Richardson and one Cora were rivals in love for some months, and that at this time Cora had taken hold of the case of one of the girls with his left hand, Richardson suddenly exclaimed: "What are you going to do with me?" Don't shoot me, I am unarmed.

At this, Cora presented a small, single barrelled pistol and before he could be prevented, shot Richardson through the heart. The action was so sudden and unexpected, that the witnesses were for a moment paralyzed, and Cora held his victim against the wall for the space of a few seconds, and then, suddenly releasing his grasp, walked away but was arrested and placed in the custody of officer Russell, who hastened with him to the police station.—Richardson was taken to the drug-store of Messrs Keith & Co, at the corner of Montgomery and Clay streets, where he expired almost immediately. An immense crowd immediately congregated in the vicinity, and it was found necessary to take the body of the murdered man to a more secluded place, and it was finally taken to the private office of the Clerk of the United States District Court. By this time, a very large and excited crowd had assembled, completely blocking up the passage of Montgomery street for a distance of two blocks.

At this time there could not be less than three thousand persons present. The utmost excitement prevailed The fearful cry of "Hang him! hang him!" was raised The public pulse beat at a feverish rate, and it is more than probable that if the culprit had been within reach, he would have been executed on the spot.

MATTERS IN KANSAS.—From a letter to the Tribune, dated at Leavenworth, Nov. 30, we make extracts as follows:

[Leavenworth is the head quarters of the pro-Slavery men.]

The Lawrence men have burned down no houses, have not declared resistance to the laws, but a small party of them have attempted to rescue a murderer from the hands of a one-sided Sheriff and Judge, for the purpose of trying him before a committee of good, honest, upright men, who would punish the murderer as they or their ostler would declare that justice demanded. The Lawrence men number about four or five hundred well-armed citizens, who while at their doors face certain submission to the lawless band of invaders, and the blood which will there be spilled will be but a drop in the rivers which must flow from a war commenced as this is about to be. Many may think the proclamation a mere hoax, and as such it was at first looked upon by us here, and was undoubtedly so regarded by the one-sided Governor; but he did not know or is he to be hoped he did not, that in the border counties of Missouri there were armed associations of ruffians who stood ready at any moment to march upon Lawrence, or any other town that might entertain Anti-Slavery sentiments. Such, however is the case I have it from reliable authority that there are several thousand "border ruffians" enrolled and waiting some pretense like the present to deluge with blood the land they have already made almost uninhabitable, by forcing upon it a Legislature who have pretended to enact laws for its government.

What the result of the meeting to be held here to-morrow will be, is hard to divine The leaders in the affair in this place say their object is to annihilate the town of Lawrence.—This I am satisfied will be attempted if the hordes now expected come from Missouri.—Buchanan County, Missouri has also offered its assistance. Four hundred riflemen from Independence are already on the march toward Lawrence What the end of this will be it is difficult to guess We who have come to Kansas to make ourselves a home, are not to sit quietly and see our neighboring towns destroyed, without offering some resistance yet to cease is almost certain death. We fear we are not strong enough to contend against such a force as Missouri can bring.

If Kansas can be left alone to manage its own institutions, elect its own rulers, adopt its own laws, &c., no better country or people could be found in the Union. The squatters of Kansas are a high-minded, enterprising industrious class of citizens who believe that it is better to die in defense of their rights than to patiently submit to the powers that be, to wit: Stringfellow and the Missouri Democrats first, Governor Shannon next, and last Gen Frank Pierce must be put at the tail end in order to complete the force arrayed against us Strange things may be enacted in Kansas before this reaches you, which you will probably receive by telegraphic reports from the opposite party, as they will have charge of all the telegraph offices

By the following extract of a letter to the St. Louis Democrat, it appears that the free-State men are making no such blood-thirsty preparations for war as the pro-slavery despatches represent:

LEAVENWORTH CITY, Nov. 29, 1855.—9½ a m. I almost regret that you sent me to Kansas to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing shorter In the preceding letter I have told the truth. I must now tell the whole truth, and that, unfortunately, is not quite so exciting. Lawrence is in a state of unperturbed quiet No cattle have been shot, the cabins of the squatters and the country are safe. Gov Shannon has discovered a hawk's nest with no eggs therein, Mr Easton and "many citizens" have been "said," Sheriff Jones is at liberty, and Dr. Robinson is making pills!

The managers of the Mercantile Association Course of Lectures have made an arrangement by which the seats in the rear of the platform are filled with the pupils of our public schools, a certain number of tickets being distributed gratuitously in several of the higher grades of schools for the purpose This is a very excellent movement and creditable to the liberality of the Association.—Journal.

The Calais Advertiser, in reference to the aspect of the lumber trade, states that there is more lumber of all kinds piled on the wharves than "we recollect of seeing for the last fifteen years There will be fewer teams sent into the woods, and less will be done in the lumbering business the present winter, than for many years past."

Ichabod B. Chadbourne, Esq., a distinguished lawyer of Eastport, died on the 6th inst.—His age was 69.

[Correspondence of the New York Tribune.]
Lawrence, Kan., Dec 1855.

So far all has been still and quiet to-day. It is reported that the arrests will be made by this afternoon. I believe the Governor has to arrest are none of them in Lawrence present time, and thus it is possible that present may be avoided. This has been done in order to prevent these dividing qualms from any pretext for attacking the place.—They will not be permitted, however, to act in the usual disorderly manner in which they have hitherto acted; and unless they behave peaceably when they come to Lawrence, should they so do, they will be driven out by force immediately

I have heard that there is to be some kind of mission of Coleman, the murderer of Dow, to compel to-do

Missourians camped down at Franklin, continue to receive reinforcements, but not in ancient numbers to venture to Lawrence Unless there should be some heavy arrivals to-day, Lawrence is safe at this time, for there cannot stay down at Franklin, drinking, swearing and idling forever. My impression is that they will leave for home when their whisky and provisions give out, which at present rates of consumption, cannot hold out many days longer.

From the Tribune of the 14th.

It now appears that Governor Shannon's pacific stories of houses burned, and women and children driven into the fields, had this foundation:

That on the night of Branson's rescue, a deserted cabin, one belonging to Coleman, the murderer of Dow, the other to his friend, a Confederate, one Buckley, were burnt, but not by the Free State men, but by Buckley himself, in the hope of thereby kindling a flame in Missouri, and giving color to the Coleman. It will be found that our correspondent fully confirms all that we had said as to the efficiency of Sharp's rifles in checking the invaders at bay.

The continued silence of the telegraph leads to the conclusion that the whisky being drunk, and Sharp's rifles becoming more terrible more soberly than they had contemplated, the border ruffians, in spite of Governor Shannon's proclamation, have dispersed and returned home

COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND LIVERPOOL.—There is no export town in the world so intimately connected by commerce with the United States and whose prosperity is so dependent upon this country, as that of Liverpool The annual amount of American products exported to Liverpool alone may be roughly estimated at two millions of bales of cotton, and fifty thousand hogsheads of sugar, the greater portion of which is from Louisiana, together with tobacco, corn, flour, and provisions, the amount of which we have no means of determining, although we may obtain some idea of the immense trade carried on between the two countries from the fact that twelve hundred vessels, whose aggregate burthen may be set down at the millions of tons, annually enter the port of Liverpool from various parts of the United States

The population of Liverpool is about three hundred thousand. Its magnificent docks, the finest perhaps in the world, stretch for three miles along the banks of the Mersey, and have an extent of quay some ten or twelve miles in length Liverpool owes its pre-eminence as a seaport partly to its favorable geographical position, but more especially to its being situated in Lancashire, by far the most important manufacturing county in England, the staple manufactures being cotton goods; but it also carries on an extensive trade in salt, woolen and linen fabrics, in pottery ware, machinery, and in manufactures of iron and brass These form no immaterial part of England's guarantees for the preservation of peace with the country.—Baltimore Patriot.

CHIPPEWA INDIANS IN BOSTON. A very interesting party of Chippewas arrived at the Bromfield House last evening from White Oak Point, Minnesota, situated between 300 and 400 miles beyond St Paul, on the Mississippi river. They were 61 days on the journey, reaching the Mississippi by means of their canoes and 120 miles of travel on foot, and thence obtaining free transit most of the way per steamers and railways. The party comprises six chiefs of the tribe, accompanied by their interpreter, the Rev. James Tanner, (a half-breed missionary, educated and employed by the American Unitarian Association,) with his wife, daughter and son

The delegation represent about half of the Chippewa nation, numbering about 2000 souls, and are on their way to Washington for the purpose of laying before President Pierce certain wrongs and grievances, alleged to have been perpetrated by Government agents and Indian traders, and also to obtain their dues from lands taken from them

A good anecdote is told of one of these. He was asked why Indians do not copy the dress of our people He replied—"Me think we started your fashions; your men now wear blankets as we do, and your women paint their faces and wear feathers!" A good comparison.—Transcript.

SMALL DISCOVERED.—Professor A. D. Bache, the able Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, in a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, dated the 21st inst., says that in the progress of the hydrographic work of the present season, in the vicinity of the Narrows, entrance to New York harbor, by the Coast Survey party, headed by Lieut Com't A. Crevan, U. S. N., a shoal spot has been discovered, existing in the main ship channel, located 2067 yards S 30 deg E from the light house on Staten Island, lying north and south with a length of 600 yards in that direction, and a breadth of 164 yds from east to west. The soundings showed a depth of 18 feet at low water. The shoal is composed of sand, and shells, or more exactly is a shell bank. The steamer Baltic struck on it a few months since, and it was reported that she had struck upon a wreck. Some of the pilots claim to have had a knowledge of the existence of the shoal, though none of them could give the ranges for it The Lieutenant and the superintendent both recommend that a buoy be placed upon it

A MOUND MAN BY THE NAME OF GREEN.—"Is there a young man in your office by the name of Green?" asked a fine old gentleman of us the other day We wondered why he asked "Well," he continued, "a young man by the name of Green called at my store, to get some little information, and by way of showing his authority for asking it, left his card, upon which the name of your paper and office were imprinted I found him at my house a few days afterwards He had been introduced to my daughter I was so well pleased with him that I invited him to stay to tea. After tea he interested us as a good deal, by narrating the course of his duties in your office, and so he confessed, he was a little cramped I lent him ten dollars, which he was to repay the next morning Did you say there was no such man in your office?

We assured our benevolent friend that our office had never been blessed with the presence of any young man by the name of Green, and received assurance in turn that our questioner was not of that name—however much he might be deserving of it He left us smiling, but confident that he should never again lend $10, to the meekest looking stranger by the name of Green, even though he had the enterprise to write the name of the best of dailies on the corner of his card.—*N. [From the Kansas Journal.]
Hon. E. Wilder Farley.

We understand Hon. E. WILDER FARLEY to be in favor of the doctrine of popular sovereignty. Are we misinformed.—Bangor Democrat

On the 10th of May, 1854, Mr Farley delivered a very able speech in the U. S. House of Representatives, in opposition to the Nebraska bill. We give below sundry extracts from that speech, in order that those interested in Mr Farley's political career, may know what he thought of "popular sovereignty" eighteen months ago. We suggest to the Democrats to publish the speech entire. Mr Farley, in speaking of the very doctrine of "popular sovereignty" or non-intervention of Congress and

* * * * Non intervention is the expedient of the politician to get rid of a troublesome subject It is running away from responsibilities which the General Government cannot throw off, under the specious out lie of leaving to the people of the Territories to do as they please with the momentous question of slavery. We may seek to put off this question of slavery in the Territories, by a resort to non intervention, but it will return to plague us as often as we make the attempt Non-intervention will be popular South, when exercised for the extension of slavery; it will be by popular North when exercised for the extension of freedom It will not harmonize the struggle between the two elements, it has to those principles of nationality about it for which its friends contend. It overthrew its author as candidate for the Presidency in 1848, and it will leave any other to give gallant enough to mount it for a similar race, sprawling in the dust It is too frail—it leans North and it leaks South, which section is to be elevated can easily be told when the curtain falls. It the doctrine of non-intervention is possessed of such magical power why not carry its application farther? It is difficult to justify the power which Congress has always exercised over the territories of the United States, which, indeed, it exercises in this very bill, without conceding its application to the subject of slavery. This very bill provides that the President of the United States may appoint the Governor of these Territories, also that the judges; it gives the Governor a veto power; it taxes the qualification of voters, it prohibits the primary disposal of the soil. If non intervention is the correct principle, why not leave the exercise of all these powers to be provided for by the people of the Territories

Mr Farley further defined his views in relation to the power of Congress, in the following declarations, to which we invite the attention of the two Dromios, the Democrat and Journal, of Bangor; Mr Farley said

"There is one other feature of the Missouri restriction to which I am a believer, though on it to point I shall probably find myself differing from some who would not disagree with me as to the power of Congress to legislate upon the subject of slavery in the Territories while under a territorial government I refer to that portion of it which declares that slavery shall be forever prohibited above the line of 36 deg 30 min It is said with much confidence, that this feature is unconstitutional; that the moment the territory is admitted into the Union as a State, the people thereof can by State action alone, authorize the admission of slavery, notwithstanding that restriction. I do not assent to this doctrine. It is said the States are sovereign, which is true to a certain extent.—But their sovereignty is limited by the Constitution of the United States. They enter the Union under the condition imposed by that instrument. The States of this Union cannot violate Contracts, they cannot do an act in violation of the legislation of Congress, made within the purview of the Constitution They are bound like other sovereignties, by the obligations of good faith and equity

To illustrate my position, I contend that the State of Ohio, admitted into the Union under the ordinance of 1787, which forever prohibited slavery within her limits, cannot, by changing her constitution, allow slavery to be introduced, because it would be a violation of one of the conditions under which she was admitted

What Mr. Mr. Farley's future course may be, we will not ourselves pretend to say We have only spoken of him as occupying the position which his friends say he will hold next year, viz the candidate of the Nebraskals for Congress It may be doing injustice to Mr Farley to place him in this attitude, and to suppose that he would run as the nominee of the Nebraskals, and the representative of their principles We should be glad of it would prove so In any event, we think he will find it hard to reconcile the principles contained in the speech as above quoted, with an opposition to the Republican party in the Presidential campaign.

Journal of a Defeated Candidate in New York.

Thursday—Received the nomination for an office in the City Council Surprised and indignant Remonstrated with Committee Wisituod that I must place myself in the hands of my friends Eventually did so

Friday—Immense poster on a brick pile opposite the house My name in two feet letters Great anguish on the part of wife and family, who believe that every office in the city government must, according to law, be indicted and tried at the end of his term.—Friends meeting me in the street, say that there is a rumor about town that I am up for office, which rumor ought to be publicly contradicted Other friends offer ironical congratulations, and leave me in doubt whether the office is unfit for me or I for the office Old gentleman says that he won't believe it, for he knew my father, and he was a very respectable man

Saturday—Man on the steps of my house, with a big stick and bull terrier. Broad-shouldered, slovenly person, with a sanguinary eye. Came to advise me to beware of a class of ruffians that go round, election times, extorting money from candidates. Offers his services to attend at the polls, customary, he says, to pay in advance. I referred him to my committee, he whistled to his dog, engaged him at five dollars, cash down We part with expressions of mutual esteem. Going in, find six men smoking in my parlor, delegates from a target excursion Customary, they say, for candidates to give prizes on these occasions; refer them to my committee, captain very polite, tells me he will give me time to think about it, and will come on Sunday with the whole Guard, to let me see what a fine looking set of fellows they are Result ten dollars for prize. Evening—excited person calls for a subscription for a banner, refer him to my committee; threatens personal violence, and swears actually, subscribed for banner; man comes with a wooden leg wants a new one Three more bands; men, clergyman, for a subscription to a deserving charity, seventeen men to tend the polls, more cripples, delegation want their fire engine painted, men without arms—to post bills, women for subscription for coffin, children all crying up stairs; my wife in hysterics, general terror and confusion Midnight—torchlight procession, kettle drums, serenades; make a speech; great cheering; rotten egg hits me in the eye; general fight, spanners, brickbats, clubs, banners, torches, and fists.

Wednesday—Wake up defeated, tell all my friends that I don't care for myself, but feel very sorry for the city. My wife goes home to her mother; the children are sent where they cannot be under my influence; no home, no friends, no wife, and no money.—New York paper.

THE BALTIC STEAMERS.—The Cunard steamships will resume their trips to the port of New York in January next. About 90 members were present—speeches were made by Messrs Hall of Ohio, Dunn of Indiana, and Eddy of Penn. in which they strenuously urged that the Republicans should withdraw Banks and try Pennington first, Fuller next. Be this as it may, an organization could not be effected, and after quite a number of speeches from the Banks men after which Kunkel of Penn offered a resolution that the caucus should be governed by the majority and that whosoever received the highest vote should stand as the candidate nominee Banks received 58 votes Fuller 1 Pennington 1 and Campbell 1 Previous to the vote being taken the Fuller men left the hall.

The "Independent" Course of Lectures

LETTERS OF THE REV G B LITTLE TO A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE.

MR. EDITOR.—As I have been accused of a great breach of courtesy on account of the following note, addressed to a member of the Committee who have charge of the "Independent Course" of Lectures in this city, I feel bound, in justice to myself, and to all who are interested in my good name, to submit it to the public judgment, if you will have the kindness to lend your columns for the purpose It called forth a long reply, which the author, however, declines publishing. My rejoinder will follow the note, and will perhaps indicate sufficiently the nature of his reply.

G. B LITTLE

DEAR SIR—Allow me very respectfully to inquire if it is irrevocably fixed that Mrs Rose is to lecture here in the Anti-Slavery course? It is perfectly certain that by her public appearance in that course, the religious sensibilities of a large, and I presume not a small number of my, a respectable portion of our people, will receive a violent shock. As a ground of such sensitiveness I referr only to her published letter. I care not to go behind or beyond that. If in other respects, and from other quarters, injustice has been done her, let her have the benefit of any defence that may be possible

You may be aware perhaps that two or three years ago, a gentleman who was engaged to lecture in the Mercantile course, having been found, in the opinion of the Committee, deficient in literary qualifications, was politely requested not to appear. And he did not. Shall the religious sensibilities of a community be entitled to less respect than their literary taste? It is too late to give the relief I ask? Would it not be magnanimous, (not to say just,) although pride should suggest a different course, viz. the inflexible accomplishment of the advertised plan? It is with no captious and illiberal spirit nor ambition to interfere, that I earnestly inquire—Does the cause of Anti-Slavery demand the appearance of such an advocate among us?

Yours respectfully,

G B LITTLE

FRIDAY, Dec 14, 1855.

DEAR SIR.—I thank you for replying to my note so fully and so decidedly After some deliberation and doubt, I have concluded to offer you, in return, some of my own suggestions upon certain topics included in your letter

You seem to think I dispute the "right" of Mrs Rose to preside and speak at a Tom Paine festival It was never in my mind to question her legal right to do so. I would not take from her that right if I could. That she has no moral right to do so, I do maintain; and also assert my own right, by moral means to thwart her influence to the extent of my power.

This right I shall use, so help me God.

Neither did I ever, nor do I now, dispute your right (though, as a matter of curiosity, I would like to know who are represented by your "Committee,")—your right to employ this woman to lecture in the "Independent Course" I never dreamed of assuming the authority to dictate to you in the matter. It is not an unheard of thing, that a man should endeavor to dissuade a friend or neighbor from doing what, at the same time, it is freely conceded he has a right to do This is the extent of my offending,—no more.

I insist, you think at probable, that "theological opinions should be considered in the choice of lecturers. In the broad latitude which, in your unbounded liberality, you give to the term "theological," I do And yet not more than you do Indeed, in my view, it is one of the gravest objections to the lectures of that school of Reform to which I suppose you feel proud to belong, that they are so intensely theological, in your sense of that term. It is not a fact as notorious as the sun, that these men spend a large proportion of their strength in despising the church, the clergy, and certain theological dogmas? Now I cannot understand why the "odium theologicum" should be employed against us, who are disposed to speak well of these things, and like to hear them spoken well of, but not against them who speak ill when they who curse on these subjects, should be counted as only free from all "theological partialities, while with those who bless it should be quite the reverse You will say, that the harsh rhetoric and extreme measures of these Reformers are dictated not from "pride," nor party spirit, nor inconsistency, but from "principle" Exactly. And that is precisely the ground of my objection Mr Phillips says, (I do not pretend to quote his precise language) "We want rods—we want a path to lead us —(Heaven knows where)" The church and the clergy are in our way Of course they must be demolished, broken down, and trampled over. Mr Parker affirms (I quote as published words) "The general Christian belief that Israel was the Son of God, stands in the way of the slaves race, and hinders our march" Believing that, he has of course bound, on "principle," to give a large share of his attention to that barrier, and seek to break it down, in the labors for a cause so closely connected with the march of the human race as is Anti Slavery It is but doing him justice, to say that he never omits an opportunity to discharge this duty. The point between you and me just at this moment, is not whether these Reformers are right in their principles and premises, but whether they are not, according to your use of language, allowing themselves to be influenced by "theological opinions," the very thing which, when suspected on me, you find so much fault with.

I come now to the crushing question, by which you show my unconsistency. "Did you eject Gibbon" you ask, "from your library because he caviled at Christianity?" I reply by asking in return, Have you John Calvin on your shelves? or the Athanasian Creed? or the Westminster Catechism? If not, why not? It surely cannot be from any "theological squeamishness" You are not afraid of them If you have them in your private library, would you acknowledge the justice of the inference that you would therefore be willing to have the sentiments of those writers, and of those symbols, spread in the precious and popular form through the families of your parish?—sentiments and doctrines which Mr Parker thinks,—and I hope it is safe to assure you agree with him,—have done more to retard the religious development of Christendom than all the rebel arms of confessed infidels, from Lucian, the king of scoffers, down to our own days;—more damage to the nation than all the sellers of intoxicating drink, and all the prostitutes in the land."

Again, you ask if I would refuse to hear "Harriet Martineau, one of the holiest women of the age, whose superiority over the rest of mankind consists (as she thinks) in her knowledge of the fact, with its attendant truths, that she is soon to die like a brute,—[do] you inquire if I would refuse to hear her lecture upon Eastern Travel I answer that whatever I, as an individual, might or might not consent to do, I certainly should oppose her lecturing on Eastern Travel, or on any subject, if I knew that consistency would compel her to inculcate in her lectures her brutish doctrines in other words, if she were as much under the influence of her "theological" (?) opinions, as are your Reform men And here let me tell you, that the monstrous datum,—one that has become a shibboleth in a certain school of Reform,—that a man may be "a technical atheist, and at the same time a practical Christian," in my book the lowest sense of the term Christian, is as much a psychological blunder as a theological heresy; is indeed an unphilosophical outrage upon common sense At this point I commend to the fifty-third Psalm.

I shall oppose nothing to your ambition to illustrate the patriotism and practical (?) Christianity of "Tommy Paine. I know of finer field on which to reap notoriety and glory, than an undertaking to set the world right in regard to this much abused Patriot—a service rendered to Oliver Cromwell by Carlyle is nothing to it. If you only had the grace to spare from the more pressing demands of the Slave, I should feel like commending it especial and sweet department of benevolence to your more elaborate attention, in a joint authorship with Mrs Rose.

Now I beg you will not think it a matter of vexation to me, as you seem to do, that the poor old Deist, Paine, had (as you and Mrs Rose pretend), some kind and even generous instincts, that I have the same irritability towards the lifeless whose delight is to serve all his alike.

Bad as a man may be he would be stultified without those instincts. You do me wrong, to suppose that I grudge any man or woman that modicum of humanity which rises them, even if it be but a little way, from the footed beasts and creeping things. This perhaps the place to notice another question yours, viz: whether if my house were on fire, I would object to its being saved by an infidel. To preserve at least the semblance of logy, you should have asked whether, in such an emergency, I would have passed by a dozen of good Christian men ready to assist, and brought from afar, to import, a female atheist to do the work, with the knowledge, too, that her plan of putting out fire compelled her to burn down some of the best houses in the neighborhood

I understand your allusion to a Colonization agent. I have no wish to notice it, except to call attention to the want of fairness, in leaving it to appear that the different treatment in the two cases would be owing solely to the fact, that, in the one instance, Colonization was rebuked, in the other, Anti Slavery. I am sure, and by no pledges, to "the Colonization scheme. To any of that scheme, however, as I do, that it denies to the colored race their manhood, is a mistake I wonder you should have made The men who claim to be the immaculate examples of benevolence and good will, who are the sworn exterminators of bigotry and intolerance, who have so large a share of zeal for such "theologians" as Mr Thomas Paine, Mrs Rose, and that noblest of women Miss Frances Wright, who have crossed the water, should be scrupulously just, at least, even towards "a wicked one only less wicked than Slavery itself."

What you say of attempts to make God and Christ apologists for human slavery, and your allusion to Dr Adams and Dr Lord, have no relevance, unless you can prove that I, and the Northern ministers generally, sympathize with those men in their views of slavery This is impossible for you to do I do not accuse you of attempting to do it I hope you do not endorse the charge, so often repeated by certain Anti Slavery lecturers, that a majority of the ministers of New England and the Free States, especially the so called evangelical clergy, are in reality pro slavery in their sentiments and apologists for the system All I have to say to that now is, that whoever affirms it—nay, whoever denies that the reverse is true,—is either a wilful liar and impudent calumniator, or is stupidly ignorant, not h a matter of speculation,—a theological dog ma,—but in a question of fact (for I mean to be charitable) is laboring under some hallucination akin to madness

I feel in duty bound to add, in conclusion, that I am alone responsible for my first note to you, which I understand is in some quarters regarded as inexcusable and impudent Not a soul but myself knew of it, until it was forwarded I supposed I was acquainted with the "religious sensibilities" of a portion of this community, and that I had a right to speak for it. No such expression, so far as I was aware, had been made to your Committee from any quarter that you would recognize as having the right to issue it I thought it just, both to those I presumed to represent, and to the "Committee, to venture such an expression, in a calm, respectful way, especially as I had been told, and had the simplicity and charity to believe, that this woman was lionized without a knowledge of her atrocious sentiments—sentiments fully and unblushingly avowed and stored in her published letter,—a letter given to the world and to be published here before my note was sent. I "dictated" you say, with a tone of lofty indignation, that is in its pride but principle, that determined the action of the Committee How far removed from pride or whether it becomes so respectable a name as pride,—let the public judge If I was guilty of running before I was sent, and if I mistook the pulse of that portion of the community, or expressed their true feeling in a way fitted reasonably to give offence, I have nothing to say I am perfectly willing to submit it to the public verdict And I think as well of the great majority of my fellow-citizens, as to believe they will not unpatriotically bear to be told,—in a song of any pageant is ever accompanies the clank of a plantation whip,—that to hail with other than admiration, or indifference, or dog like submission, the advent among us of a female Athenian, a boasting disciple of Tom Paine, "imported into our midst to instruct us, our wives, and our children upon a great Moral Question,—is to be guilty of "extravagance," "prejudice," "bigotry," and a "theological (?) squeamishness," worthy only of derision, and not a protest, however courteous and silent, against the insolent outrage, is to be branded as an unwarrantable and unpardonable interference

I have no desire for a public controversy with any man, on any subject I do not dream of being able to convert you to my way of thinking, and it is very likely you will despair of making a proselyte of me

With perhaps now a better understanding of our respective principles, we shall go on each in our way, hoping, as I most willingly and cheerfully do, that Great Being to judge ultimately between us and our respective courses, who judgeth righteously, and before whom we shall all soon stand

Yours respectfully,

G. B LITTLE

HAS ARRIVED.

The Voluntary Testimony of Living Witnesses, is, that

Hayes' Allied Ointment,

and Humor Syrup,

IS the ONLY MEDICINE ever offered to the public for the cure of all Humors.

It has stood the test of more than seven years, and is offering it to the public we are not ignorant of its operation. We know it to be the greatest ALLEVIATOR of PAIN and SUFFERING to those afflicted with any kind of Humor, and to be one of the greatest blessings to mankind ever before offered, as we can show by the evidence of living witnesses.

Read the following—it speaks for itself.

Lawrence, June 17, 1854.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by Dr. E. D. Hayes [illegible], and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the Doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy result, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparillas, Salves, etc., etc.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as [illegible] article, and the only one known to us of performing all it claims.

BUNKER, A. W. STEVENS
THOMPSON, ASA TSANBORN

It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face, leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of complexion. Never, in no case will it fail to [illegible]. It will draw humors from the Stomach, Lungs, Throat, and from the Head and Eyes, by an outward application. It improves the sight wonderfully where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty, and restoring the sight.

PATENTS

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements, whereby, on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal, through him, within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors here not only can obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent. less than those of others in the profession,) but avail themselves of the experience of twenty years' practice. His visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries, besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the present Commissioner.]

"August 27, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of bile.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing upon the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands about it, suiting some cases but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty; and has seen puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week.—There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.

Roxbury, Sept. 19, 1853.

This is to certify that H. H. HAY, Druggist, Portland, is the duly AUTHORISED GENERAL AGENT for my MEDICAL DISCOVERY for the STATE OF MAINE, and that he is supplied with the GENUINE, direct from my Laboratory.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach,

Such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness, or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking, or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c.

Sudden Flushes of Heat Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

The proprietor, in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and individuals, in all parts of the country is immense. The following from your own State is respectfully submitted, referring any who may still doubt, to my "Memorabilia," or Practical Receipt Book for Farmers and Families, to be had gratis of all the Agents for the German Bitters.

Principal office and manufactory, 120 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE.

Capt. Daniel Abbott, Brooklyn, Maine, July 16, 1853, says: "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S.C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of 'Hoofland's German Bitters' in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 11 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man.—I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. B. Hall & Co., Presque Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, says: "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos. B. Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters," I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years.—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK.

Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co., Me.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

Try it! Try it!! Try it!!!

G. W. STONE'S LIQUID CATHARTIC —AND— FAMILY PHYSIC,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe, and agreeable physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes Habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, Regulates the action of the Liver, frees the stomach from bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tic Doloureux, Gout, Pain in the Head, Side, Stomach, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels—DYSENTERY, DIARRHOEA, AND CHOLERA MORBUS, yield at once to its magical influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT, and its merits will be recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering from Scrofula, try bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness three bottles will effect it; that your dyspepsia—If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgia, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them.—All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe, and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

By the aid of a microscope we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies.—Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, Disorders of the Liver, affections of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthmas, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes through bone or meat of any thickness.—This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, and Scorbutic Humors.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Head, Scrofula or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

Sore Legs, Sore Breasts, Wounds and Ulcers.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Professor Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, despatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

Piles and Fistulas.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles	Sprains
Burns,	Rheumatism	Scalds
Chapped Hands	Salt Rheum	Swelled Glands
Chilblains	Skin Diseases	Stiff Joints
Fistulas	Sore Legs	Ulcers
Gout	Sore Breasts	Venereal Sores

LET US REASON TOGETHER

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

WHY ARE WE SICK?

IT has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFIRM, of all climes, ages, sexes and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines in the United States, and offers them to a free and enlightened people, as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

These Pills Purify the Blood.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Dyspepsia & Liver Complaint.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

General Debility. Ill Health.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

Female Complaints.

No Female, young or old should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses, at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint—consequently no family should be without it.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:

Asthma	Dropsy	Inward Weakness
Bowel Complaints	Debility	Lowness of Spirits
Coughs	Fever and Ague	Piles
Colds	Female Complaints	Stone and Gravel
Chest Diseases	Headache	Secondary Symptoms

Dr. Ira Warren's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil, Lime & Sugar of Milk.

The great value of Cod Liver Oil as a medicine in Consumption is now generally admitted. It corrects a bad assimilation, the primal defect in this disease, by arresting the growth of cells—the cell resulting, according to Dr. Barnett, from the union of a minute particle of oil with albumen, under the quickening [illegible] of vitality. The Phosphate of Lime has been proved to promote to some great end, that [illegible] both the vegetable and the animal world.

The Sugar of Milk is manufactured solely from the whey of Goat's milk, being a supporter of respiration in weak lungs and having a powerful affinity for oxygen, gives [illegible] the above remedies in Consumption, and when properly combined for them, makes an elegant preparation, removing much of the offensive taste and smell of the Oil and supplying a [illegible] combustive for the lungs, much like that [illegible] by a healthy diet.

In conducting a large special practice in Throat and Lung diseases, Dr. Warren resorts directly to the fisheries for pure Oil. The excellence of this combination will be at once appreciated by the medical profession, and [illegible] trial of it will commend it to the people generally.
